WEDDINGS AT THE OLD QUAY HOUSE

MEET OUR CHEF, Richard

From the first sip of champagne to the final decadent dessert, every taste is thoughtfully crafted as a bespoke work of art.

Led by Executive Chef Richard Massey, his award-winning experience and passion for Cornwall's ingredients infuse every plate with confidence, character and creativity.

Here, bold flavours meet seasonal inspiration, celebrating Cornwall's finest local produce, always with our distinctive Samphire twist.

Before the big day you will be invited to your personal menu tasting, exploring flavours, refining your dishes and to understand exactly how your food will look and feel on the day.

You'll get to explore the colours, textures, and presentation styles that bring each plate to life.

Seeing the dishes in person ensures everything aligns with your vision, from the elegance of your starters to the final flourish on your dessert.

ARRIVE ON THE FRIDAY AFTERNOON AT YOUR LEISURE..

Whilst luggage is taken to your rooms, enjoy an iced cold mocktail and nibbles out on the sea view terrace.

Once settled in, join your friends and family down in our Sapphire Restaurant for Pre-Wedding Cocktails and sample the OQH grazing tables featuring artfully arranged selections of artisanal cheeses, premium cured meats, and fresh, seasonal produce and of course something sweet to finish.

Enjoy full exclusivity of our bar until its time to retire to bed, ready for the festivities next day.

YOUR WEDDING DAY IS UPON US..

Wake up and open the curtains to the most picturesque views. Go down and enjoy a leisurely Cornwall breakfast and take a stroll along the cobbled streets experiencing the local galleries, vintage shops and waterside walks.

Head back and get ready for the main event. Experience a unique and intimate ceremony surrounded by your closest family and friends.

Eat, drink and be ..married
